

SPONSORED BY THE CENTRE FOR KOREAN RESEARCH

The Centre for Korean Research is pleased to present:

“South Korea’s Foreign Policy, Viewed from Inside vs. Outside”

By Taehyo Kim
Sungkyunkwan University, Korea

Thursday, September 17th
3:30-5:00 pm

Room #120, C.K. Choi Building
1855 West Mall

Abstract: The presentation examines challenging security issues that the Republic of Korea face today including North Korea policy, future of ROK-U.S. alliance, relations with the PRC and Japan, re-unification of Korean Peninsula, and the roles of Global Korea. Several controversial and contending policy debates will be introduced with related illustrations and anecdotes. Also, a number of comparative analyses will be given to show how a same security agenda is differently viewed from Korean society and outside world.

Bio:

(Present) Professor of the Department of Political Science at Sungkyunkwan University; Vice-President at the New Asia Research Institute; Editor of the New Asia Journal; Senior Advisor to the Expert Global Korea Mission at the CSIS; regular columnist for Chosun Daily Newspaper; visiting scholar at UC Berkeley.

(Former) Dean of the Graduate School for National Strategy at Sungkyunkwan University (2015); Senior Secretary to the President for National Security (2012), Deputy National Security Advisor (2008-2011), Professor at the Institute of Foreign Affairs and National Security (2002-2005).