“ECLIPSED CINEMA: THE FILM CULTURE OF COLONIAL KOREA”

By Dr. Dong Hoon Kim
University of Oregon

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 2018
3:30PM–5:00PM

ROOM 120,
C.K. CHOI BUILDING
1855 WEST MALL, VANCOUVER, BC V6T 1Z2

Bio: Dr. Dong Hoon Kim is an associate professor in the Department of Cinema Studies at the University of Oregon. His research and teaching interests include visual culture, early cinema, film and media spectatorship and East Asian film, media and popular culture. Kim has been engaged with a variety of activities in the field besides his academic research, directing short films, working for film festivals, and serving as consultant to film companies.